This reputation has been established by the Louisville Herald in printing all the news all the time. During this, a presidential year, you want a metropolitan daily newspaper, and you can best satisfy that want by ordering the Herald in connection with THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD. The Herald's staff of correspondents scattered throughout the state, and its source of news throughout the country, especially in Washington, D. C., enables it to give full and accurate reports of the conditions as they develop.

Title Must Be Settled By Court.

Title to 2,000 acres of valuable timber and coal land in Whitley county is involved in a case which, by the action of the land office in Frankfort, is to be fought out in the courts. The land office has decided, under an opinion of the attorney general, to grant a patent to the land to W. C. Gillis, which means that the heirs of Judge Robert Boyd, of London, will get a title to the land, but they will have to defend that title in a court of equity. The attorney general advised that the question would have to be passed up to the courts for determination.

It developed, when an examination of the title was made recently, that the state of Kentucky had never granted a patent to the land to anybody. This is one of the few cases on record where no patent at all was granted. The first record of the tract of land is a warrant from the Whitley county court to Cox, Williams & McLaney, February 25, 1850. This warrant conveyed 40,000 acres and the tract in dispute was conveyed to Gillis, as assignee of Cox, Williams & McLaney. Gillis surveyed the land. In 1872 the land was sold at commissioner's sale and was bought by Judge Boyd, who thought he had a clear title. Robert Boyd, Jr., an heir of Judge Boyd, now asks that the land office grant a patent to Gillis so that Boyd's title can be perfected. This will be done, but that does not mean that the case will be settled, for the courts must decide whether or not the land office was right, and also settle the question of ownership.—Frankfort cor. Cincinnati Enquirer.

Dog Dives for Fish.

Matthew Breen, a restaurant keeper of Paris, Ill., is the owner of a dog of unknown pedigree and breed which dives at his master's command and rarely fails to bring a fish to the surface of the water and then to the bank, provided a suitable place for his "fishing" is picked out for him.

The dog's penchant for fishing was already developed when Breen purchased him in the south for $35. Since then the owner of the canine has gone on many fishing excursions with the animal, and the brute always makes a better catch than his master. Recently the dog dove into the Wabash river at the word from Breen, and after remaining under the water for more than one minute brought up a German carp weighing 28 lbs. The dog is about the size of a full grown shepherd dog and has short brown hair. A half-brother of the dog which Breen bought at the same time he acquired the fishing dog also dove and sometimes brought fish out of the water. He died as a result of lung fever contracted by staying under water too long.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

A Matrimonial Mix-Up.

Miss Maggie Day, daughter of John Day, of Morgan county, has married four brothers, each one in rotation according to age. As the Sadducee said to Christ, "Whose wife will she be in the resurrection?" Robert Elkins was her first husband and after his death James, the next brother, married her. After his death the next brother, Barley, married her, and upon his death, Monroe, the fourth and last brother, took her to wife. Of course the usual time of mourning intervened between these marriages and by the first two she had issue, which makes the brothers and sisters first cousins. She and her last husband are still living. There is probably not another case in the history of Kentucky like this. Her second husband was uncle to her first husband's children, and by marriage she became aunt to her own children.

A Good Hair-Food

Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is a genuine hair-food. It feeds, nourishes, builds up, strengthens, invigorates. The hair grows more rapidly, keeps soft and smooth, and all dandruff disappears. Aid nature a little. Give your hair a good hair-food.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it. Use it as he says.

You need not hesitate about using this new Hair Vigor from any fear of its changing the color of your hair. The new Ayer's Hair Vigor prevents premature grayness, but does not change the color of the hair even to the slightest degree.

The Haag Mighty Shows.

According to advertisement in THE HERALD the Haag Mighty Shows exhibited here Tuesday afternoon to a crowd of about 600 people. The principal features of the exhibition are the Whitlarks, man and wife, double trapeze and Roman ring contortionists; Spider Mardeller, world's greatest contortionist; McCue brothers, hand-balancing and acrobats; Peaseleys, man and wife, carrying perch and cannon ball juggling; Prof. Delvy, ring master and pony exhibitor. Trained elephants, ponies, dogs and monkey, etc., comprised the main show, and in the animal tent were a kangaroo, monkeys, grave-digging hyena, two laughing hyenas, tiger, lion, spotted and black leopards, three elephants and a camel. Without doubt the show is the best that ever exhibited at this place, and it is conducted in a genteel manner, with nothing to offend any one. No swearing or boisterous language is allowed by the management among the showmen, and the costumes of the performers are new and clean. Mr. Haag and all associated with him, even canvas men and drivers, deport themselves in a gentlemanly and orderly manner, and altogether the show is an object lesson all should see.

Best Behaved People.

One of the showmen talking to a reporter of THE HERALD said that of all the places where they had exhibited Hazel Green had the best behaved people, even to the children. He said no other town was even a close second, and surely every citizen should be very proud of such a verdict and strive always to maintain it.

With due respect to Miss Helen Chase Walbridge, daughter of the president of the O. & K. railway, who took four letters from her first, three from her second and two from her last name to make the word "Hellechawa," somebody last week suggested that the name of the station be called "Hellechaway," as that is what people experience who travel it from Hazel Green, or vice versa.

Millard Brewer's little son, Carney, while playing on a water gate Sunday jumped into the water and stuck an 8-penny nail into his foot. Cad Dennis, of Ezel, spent last week at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Catron.

Mrs. Mina Lyons, wife of Charlie Lyons, departed this life at her home on Clark branch, Thursday, May 28, aged 34 years. She was a member of the Congregational church, a true and devoted Christian. She had done what she could to finish her earthly career and was just waiting for the Blessed Savior to come and take her home. With the imprint of a true and loving mother she left one little girl, a husband, two sisters and one brother to mourn for her.

Precious mother she has left me, Left me, yes, for evermore, But I hope to meet dear mother On that bright and happy shore.

Lonely the house and sad the hours, Since our dear one has gone, But oh! a brighter home than ours In heaven is now her own.

Farewell, dear mother, but not forever. There will be a glorious dawn. We shall meet to part no more on the resurrection morn.

A Model Storehouse.

A. P. Dye has just returned from Campton, where he was engaged in building a mammoth storeroom for Miller Bros. & Childers, which is an ornament to the town. The structure is 131 feet in length, 36 feet wide and 28 feet high. It has 38 windows and two glass fronts for display of stock. The floor space covers 9432 feet and there are 270 feet of shelving with 175 feet of hardwood counters, all the interior being highly varnished. It has an extremely neat appearance on the inside and is an imposing elegant business building from outside view. One anyone should be proud to own. Mr. Dye has had much experience in this line, and any one contemplating building will save money by giving him the contract.

Rev. W. F. Jones and wife, of Lee City, were visiting his parents, M. W. Jones and wife, Friday and Saturday.

Goff Long has organized a ball team and will begin practice next week. Goff thinks his nine will be able to do up the Cincinnati Reds in a short time.

Eli Phipps, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Morgan county, spent Sunday with Isom Long and family. Uncle Ely is a very interesting talker, having a better memory than most men at his age. He is now past 85 years old.

The Sunday School at this place is progressing nicely under the management of Elihu Skeins as superintendent; Miss May Nickell, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. E. J. Long, R. M. Jones, Kate McClure and Miss Emma Byrd as teachers. Fifty or more pupils have enrolled.

This being a new neighborhood we are desirous that some of our happenings should get into the newsmen's paper on earth. Therefore we have selected THE HERALD as a means of letting the world know something about what is going on in this beautiful, busy locality.

James Nickell and family with Buford Nickell and family and O. B. Nickell and family spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday with J. B. Amyx and family at Grassy Lick. They went to the mouth of Grassy Saturday fishing. What success they had we have not yet learned.

Crops of all kinds are looking better than they have for years at this time of the season in this vicinity. On account of wet weather much corn was planted late, but it is growing very fast and indications are that much will be raised as farmers have put out larger crops than for several years past.

PATIENCE.

BY MABEL C. MAY.

A sower sowed in the springtime,
In the dewy morn, glad-hearted,
The skies were blue, the air perfumed,
Sunbeams around him darted;
With joy he thought of the harvest
As he scattered seed o'er hill and plain,
But long summer days glided by
Ere he reaped the golden grain.

A girl loved the fragrant flowers,
And so she buried one day
The root of a rose,
Under the cold ground away,
She watered it with her tears
And earth and life were wrapped in gloom;
Hope grew faint and winter days passed
Before she saw her rose in bloom.

Oh, impatient hand and heart!
With hopes long in being fulfilled,
Sow on, wait on, pray on,
Let all complaints be stilled: [long,
Thy pathway be dark, and waiting days
In loving service let thy life be given,
Thy grain shall ripen, thy roses bloom,
If not on earth in heaven.
Hazel Green, Ky.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely
Chronicle.

Roger Spicer, charged with the killing of James Johnson, in Breathitt county, was acquitted last week in circuit court.

John Birth, Jr., was scolded to death and Eliac Logsdon fatally burned by an overturned boiler in a sawmill near Owensboro.

While watching carpenters raise a barn near Owensboro Charles Newman, of Louisville, was struck on the head by a falling plank and died shortly in convulsions.

Dispatches to the city state that at Elkatawn, last Friday, James Dixon, aged 6 years, accidentally killed his sister Maggie, aged 8 years, by throwing a rock and hitting her on the head.

Will A. Young, of Morehead, has been retained to defend Beech Hargis in addition to the array of talent already engaged. He was chief counsel for the late James Hrgis in several feud cases.

The cases against Beech Hargis, Dan White and Ed Mullins in Breathitt circuit court were continued until next term. Allen Creech, charged with the killing of Charles Robinson, received a life sentence.

Fox hunters were mistaken for night riders and fired upon by the soldiers who were guarding the tobacco beds of J. Will Clay, near Hollywood Springs, Montgomery county. Several shots were exchanged but no one was hurt.

After twenty years of connubial bliss Ed Callaban, ex-sheriff of Breathitt county, was last week divorced from his wife. She had her maiden name restored to her and will hereafter be known as Tysander Spicer until she remarries.

Anonymous letters have been received by the county judge and the county attorney of Lyon county, presumably from night riders. The writer, evidently the same person, calls on the officials to resign at once or dire results may happen.

Last Thursday was the one hundred and sixteenth anniversary of the admission of Kentucky as a sovereign state into the Federal Union. The first General Assembly of the commonwealth convened in Lexington Monday, June 4, 1792.

The prison commission last week paroled Henry Turner, of Breathitt county, sentenced to three years in the penitentiary on a charge of killing his father-in-law, Elijah Howard. He served about one-half the time. The family of Howard petitioned for the parole.

W. S. Dudley, the tobacco buyer who during the early period of the 1908 market season, was threatened with violence at Carlisle, last week closed a deal at Lexington for 600,000 pounds of tobacco. He bought the tobacco for an investment and will hold it for a rise.

Prof. John H. Neville, aged 80 years and for 60 years a teacher in public institutions, 40 of which were in Lexington, the last 28 years in Kentucky State University, announced last week that he had put aside the harness and would retire from the classroom. He has made application for a pension from the Carnegie fund.

It was learned at Frankfort last week that Nelson Haibert, arrested at Mangum, Okla., and wanted in Floyd county on a charge of killing Albert Bagley, is at large again, although Governor Willson had issued the requisition papers for his return to the state.

Two children—boy and girl—named Curry, living near Aaron's Run, Montgomery county, while playing found a bottle and drank part of the contents. When found they were nearly dead and the girl, aged 6 years, died shortly in severe convulsions. The boy was only saved by hard work.

Trump Harp, living near Harper's Ferry, went into a combination of independent growers in Henry county to raise tobacco this year. An arrangement had been made to guard the beds, and when Harp's time to guard he refused, saying he had changed his mind and would not raise tobacco. A quarrel ensued and Noble Onan filled him with buckshot, but not fatally.

A number of farmers in Madison county are said to be in the "hawk raising" business, and have large numbers of hawk eggs and hens and will raise chicken hawks that may be killed and the state compelled to pay at the rate of $1 each. Owing to the inestimable damage done in different parts of the state by chicken hawks annually killing thousands of chickens, the last legislature passed a bill providing $1 each for these birds, dead, presented at the county clerk's office of the county in which killed.

A notable wedding occurred last week in Caldwell College chapel, Danville, the contracting parties being Miss Elizabeth Jean Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hayes, of Reedville, N. C., and Philo C. Dix, state secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, residing at Louisville. Miss Hayes has been a student in Caldwell College for two years, graduating Wednesday. A novel feature of the wedding was that she was handed her marriage certificate from the same rostrum from which she had received her diploma only the day before.

Jake Noble Fined $150.

A Jackson dispatch, dated June 8, says: "Jake Noble, who created so much excitement in town Saturday night by trying to 'take the place,' was brought into Police Court this morning and given $50 in each of three cases for shooting on the public highway. He also has several cases to face as a result of his presenting a pistol and also for holding up Norman Combs, a fifteen-year-old boy, whom he came near shooting."

TRY YOUR LUCK!

$25 in Free Presents.

The Wolfe County Democratic Primary Election to select candidates for the various county offices will be held in the summer some time, and THE HERALD avails of the occasion to increase its subscription list and at the same time give its subscribers $25.00 in useful articles, such as watches and chains, razors, combination handy tool holder, &c.

This is in no sense a lottery but an educational problem, in which each new subscriber, and each old one who pays up and renews, will have the opportunity to exercise his brain in estimating the vote to be polled at the coming Democratic Primary Election.

The price of THE HERALD is $1.00 a year, in advance, and every subscriber is entitled to one estimate. Old subscribers who pay up arrearages and one year in advance are also entitled to one estimate. The one who sends in the closest estimate will receive a gold plated watch and chain; next nearest gold plated watch and aluminum fob, next a fine razor, &c. Use the estimate coupon attached. Write your name plainly and make figures of estimate very distinct. Then enclose $1.00 with the coupon and mail to this office. These coupons will be filed and the day after the election a disinterested committee will take charge of them and determine who is entitled to the presents.

The Presents That Will Be Awarded.

The person making the nearest estimate will receive a gold-plated American watch, good time piece, and plated chain.	$10.00
The person making the second closest estimate will receive American watch, good time piece, and aluminum fob.	6.50
The person making the third closest estimate will receive an American made razor, as good as any ever produced.	2.50
The person making the fourth nearest estimate of the vote at the primary will receive the same kind of razor.	2.50
The person making the fifth nearest estimate of the total vote at the primary gets a razor of the same kind.	2.50
The person making the sixth nearest estimate to the total vote cast will receive a combination pocket tool case.	1.00

BASED UPON WHICH TO MAKE ESTIMATE.
The total Democratic vote polled in the Congressional election of 1906 was 879, and in the Governor's election of 1907 Mr. Hager received a total of 899 votes.
